

CUBAN NEWS.

The Chances for the Insurgents' Success Grow Brighter.

Campos, With 3,000 Men, Marching Toward Puerto Principe.

A Newspaper Will Be Published in the Field by the Rebels. Col. Sandoval Captured—Rebels Offered for the Capture of Gomes and Maceo.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., July 6.—A key to the Times Union from Key West, Fla., says: "Private advices received this morning in Havana state that the chances of Cuban success grow brighter every day."

Martinez Campos, at the head of 1,000 men, is marching toward Puerto Principe. Provisions scarce in that district, and the condition of the poorer classes is terrible. It is rumored in Havana that the son of Martinez Campos was captured by the insurgents at the battle of Grand Pedro, and is being held as a hostage. He is reported sick.

The insurgents under Miro raided a newspaper office in a town near Holguin and carried off the entire outfit; it is stated they will publish a paper in the field. Col. Sandoval who was in command of troops in the battle in which Marti was killed has been captured by Jose Maceo.

Lieut. La Horde, stationed at San Jeronimo with eighty men, surrendered to Gen. Gomez. They were sent to Pinar del Rio.

Lient. Becerro, with twenty-five men, of Mulafo, surrendered to the insurgents and delivered up 4,000 rounds of ammunition and twenty-five rifles.

It is reported that the Spanish government has offered large rewards for the capture of Gomes and Maceo, dead or alive.

The Spanish official organ, La Union Constitucional, published a notice of a reward of $5,000 for the recovery of the living body of Marti before his death.

A newspaper, the Minneapolis minister at Washington, published in Ixavana, states that all the U. S. warships and revenue cutters in Florida waters will be subject to orders from the Spanish consul at this city.

The Education Department.

Dyatkin, July 6.—The afternoon attendance at the education convention was larger than that of the morning. The report of the committee on elementary education was read by the chairman, the committee on schools having a Divisional meeting. O. H. Deane declared that the pupil should at the age of six years, be able to read and write readily, and that learning at that age was more rapid than later in life. This met much opposition.

A Lexington, Ky., Mass Meeting.

Washington, July 6.—The afternoon session was held at the education convention was larger than that of the morning. The report of the committee on elementary education was read by the chairman, the committee on schools having a Divisional meeting. O. H. Deane declared that the pupil should at the age of six years, be able to read and write readily, and that learning at that age was more rapid than later in life. This met much opposition.

THE GRANT APPROVAL.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The secretary of the interior Friday approved a list of 1,000,000 acres of land in the Moine, Ia., land district granted to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway Co., to aid in the construction of a road from South McGregor, Iowa, to an intersection of a road between Sioux City and the Minnesota state line.

PATTERSON'S APPOINTMENTS.

A Batch of Trainmen in Washington From Gray Gables.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The following appointments were received in the mail from Gray Gables, Friday morning:

Navy—the following graduates recently killed by the marshal, in an attempt to prevent a street fight between V. Patterson and a local editor. A name was submitted by the secretary of the interior to President Wilson, and the name of one of the deceased, Mr. Patterson, was chosen.

He declared that the pupil should at the age of six years, be able to read and write readily, and that learning at that age was more rapid than later in life. This met much opposition.

FRATHAULT USE OF THE MAIL.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The use of the mail, which has been prohibited to the Nebraska Manufacturing Co., of St. Joseph, Mo., for employing lottery methods in the promotion of its business.

Also to N. J. Haiford, of Grand Rapids, Mich., who advertised that he could get $1,000,000 upon the receipt of a lock of hair.

NO YELLOW FEVER AT TAMPA.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The report that yellow fever had broken out at Tampa reached the marine hospital service in an indirect way, and navigation vessels were not allowed to enter the State Health Doctor Dr. John Y. Porter to investigate. Dr. Porter's reply was not received until Friday night, and he said that he had been at the quarantine station at Port Tampa and neither at that place or at Tampa proper had he found any symptoms of the disease.

SAFETY IN A FIRE.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 6.—"Vigil" Sharpen, 38 years old, who has habored around on a wooden leg and sold newspapers in the streets of Chicago for the past ten years, was suffocated Friday night in a fire at the Argyle Lodging. Other inmates of the house escaped but Pappy was dead before the firemen reached him.

Selma's Best Reserved.

OMaha, July 6.—The search for the body of John Selma, which had been previously missing since his murder became known was rewarded Friday night by the recovery of the body from the river near Albright, a suburb below Omaha. Selma's throat was cut and his head badly beaten.

A general Cutting of Rates.

Houston, Tex., July 6.—The cut rates of the Houston, East and West Texas railroad to New York, Cincinnati and Boston is to be met by all competing roads according to an agreement made Friday and it is probable the strike will extend to them. The new rate will be in effect a day.

NEWSPAPER FOR SATURDAY.

Winnipeg, July 6.—The upper dockmen on the Wisconsin Central ore dock went out on strike Friday for an increase in wages. The strikers were in conference with the Chicago and Northwestern dockmen, and it is probable the strike will extend to them. The new rate will be in effect a day.

NEWSPAPER FOR SATURDAY.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.

Indemnity Over the Escape of the Chicago Post Office Thieves and Says None Is to Blame.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Postmaster General Wilson Friday issued the following statement later to the United States attorney at New York, in regard to the escape of the Chicago post office burglars:

HOW WALLACE McFARLAND, U. S. District Attorney, New York City—Dear Sir:—I am sending you the telegram of Friday advising the offer of a reward for the capture of the post office burglar, Kilmer Allen, and his co-conspirator, and I am amicably inclined to give a much stronger feeling to the report in this morning's New York paper of the fact that the burglar is still at large, and to avoid the conclusion that somebody is finally responsible for that escape.

BURLIN, July 6.—Michael Cleary, of Bayonne, near Hoboken, is causing the death of his wife, Bridget, on March 14 last, by burning and otherwise ill-treating her on the ground where she was bewitched. The so-called Cleary, who is regarded as the author of crime in Ireland, Michael Cleary, husband of the deceased; Patrick Holan, her father; William, Patrick, Michael and James Kennedy, cousins; Mary Kennedy, June, and Daniel Devlin, the latter known as the "family doctor," were jointly arrested and charged with burning and ill treating Mrs. Cleary until death relieved her from further suffering. The evidence against them was obtained from nervousness and boasting, and that her husband, believing her to be bewitched, forced a nauseous decoction down her throat for the purpose of exorcising the evil spirit. After that she was given a fire and dreadfully burned until she declared in the name of God that she was not Cleary's wife. This torture was repeated, and in the end her husband knocked her down, stripped off her clothes and beat her over her bare limbs, and the woman burned to death in the presence of her relatives. Cleary claimed that he was not burning his wife, but the witness. The prisoners narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of the crowd in and about the courtroom at Clinton, where they were first examined, and they had to be taken to jail under a strong guard.
